Summary

Hello! I'm Bharath Kumar S, a dedicated Computer Science student at Cambridge Institute of Technology. My passion for programming is on par with my enthusiasm for Event Management, Operations, Marketing, and Research.

In the tech domain, I have good knowledge in Python Programming, OpenCV, HTML, Excel along with proficiency in Git and GitHub. These skills contribute to my ability to navigate in programming and development.

In addition to my technical skills, I've gained experience in Operations Management, Marketing, Leadership, Communication, and Public Speaking. My journey so far reflects a dedication to continuous improvement and a broad skill set in technology, creativity, and business.

I am good at leveraging various AI tools to enhance my productivity. I do learn and stay updated about the new AI tools that are being launched in order to stay ahead in this era.

Fluent in five languages - English, Telugu, Hindi, Kannada, and Tamil. I find it easy to connect with diverse audiences and navigate multicultural environments.

I'm open to collaboration and excited about contributing my skills to meaningful projects. Let's connect and explore the intersections of technology, creativity, and business!
